Visiting Our Roots a Community Bus Tour

Genia Stemper –River Talk Weekly - Come join local treasure Virginia Warren to see and hear all about points of historical interest on a bus tour of Camas and Washougal.

On September 10th, beginning at 10:30 am in Washougal, Warren will guide the tour, explaining the historical sites that are tucked away throughout our two communities.

Warren, a master historian and story teller, has lived here for all of her ninety years and enjoys sharing her passion for local history. The bus will go by the Pendleton Mill, the Pittock's summer house on Lacamas Lake, and even make a stop for lunch at Columbia Ridge.

2015

Camas Hotel Early 1900's